

The following is the mantra/affirmation I have been given to help one to realign with their eternal divine blue prints/templates and to assist in the transmuting and transcending through all negative/false programs back into our divine perfection and highest potentials. Utilize it several times daily and as needed or guided. For those who remember how to access your 12 dimensional crystalline pillars please do that meditation/visualization twice daily or as guided.

It is time to really bring in the transmutation of the old energies, illusions, and false programs. May humanity awaken to love, take back their power and return to their divine perfection and divine sovereignty in alignment with the organic/natural cycles of creation in service for the highest good and betterment of all.

Embrace Your Divine Sovereignty

"I merge my heart with the heart of the Eternal Sacred Source/the Infinite Creator of All That Is. I merge my heart with the eternal organic cosmic mother, the eternal organic cosmic father and the eternal organic cosmic divine child in perfect balance, wholeness and divine perfection. I merge my heart with the eternal divine sovereign heart of Mother Earth creating a clear channel for the Eternal Organic Living Creational Codes, Blue Prints and Templates to be restored in to their full and highest divine perfection within me, throughout humanity and here upon Earth. I join in service with the Eternal Living Legions of Love in Service for the highest good and betterment of all life and creation.

Help me, Help Humanity to transmute, transcend all negative consciousness programs, all reverse or high-jacked programs, the negative consciousness grid and all out of balance with our divine sovereignty individually & collectively through ease & grace. Help me to clear, cleanse and transmute all illusions and false programs within myself, to raise my consciousness and living light/love quotients back into my highest potential, divine perfection and eternal divine sovereignty. I take back my power and authority embracing my divinity and all that I am.

Please assist humanity, mother earth and all life within this reality to return to their eternal organic divine templates and divine blue prints in alignment with the eternal organic living cycles of creation. Please transcend all non-organic or negative programming, transcend all distortions and bring healing, peace and balance back in accordance to the Law of One through living love.

Help us to return Mother Earth to her highest potential through living love, back into her divine perfection, divine sovereignty & in harmony with the higher vibrational frequencies of our universe. I am ready to fully awaken and return to my complete wholeness merging my divine masculinity, my divine femininity & my divine child in perfect balance within my heart, my divine sovereignty & the heart of the eternal sacred source/infinite creator of all, in service through love.

The time is now to lift the veils and move our planet and reality back into a state of living love and our divine sovereignty, living in balance, peace, joy, and compassion with all life. I stand in forgiveness through all directions of time and space and I give gratitude to all the lessons of duality. Moving me into new awareness, conscious expansion and a remembrance of all that I Am! I am ready to return to my highest potential in alignment with my divine perfection and divine sovereignty beyond all limitations. To bear witness the return of Mother Earth into her highest organic potential, divine perfection and eternal divine sovereignty through the living grace of the Eternal Sacred Source, the Infinite Creator of All That Is.

So be it! I AM All That I AM! And it is so! Thank You! Thank You! Thank You!"

With Much Love & Gratitude and in Loving Service, dmfinn
